In Celebrating Our Woman of the Year,

Eileen Bartlomiejus

Eileen Bartlomiejus was first introduced to the Philadelphia port community in 1988 when she became employed by the Ports of Philadelphia Maritime Exchange as secretary to its Executive Director, William A. Harrison. In addition to secretarial duties, she was responsible for solicitation of new members to the Exchange as well as involvement with the publication of its Port Directory. In 1999, Eileen became employed by General Marine Refrigeration Corporation as an Administrative Assistant. She is responsible for all administrative functions of the business from human resources to accounting. She serves on the board of the Ports of Philadelphia Maritime Society as Treasurer. She is currently a member of the Women's International Trade Association and previously served as President. She has also served as Secretary to the Mariners' Advisory Committee during her tenure with the Maritime Exchange. While at the Maritime Exchange and continuing at General Marine, Eileen assists in the organization and planning of the bi-annual Vessel Owners' and Captains' Association meetings.
